

LGBT

Housing:

SolidarityNow: recently launched a program in order to provide housing in apartments to 50 LGBT asylum seekers.

Address: Domokou 2, opposite Larissis train station

Email: contact@solidaritynow.org tact@solidaritynow.org

Phone: 210 6772500

Legal Support:

Colour Youth: provides legal support to LGBT refugees. Most importantly, a lawyer from Colour Youth can be present during the asylum interview, which indirectly certifies the refugees gender identity.

Phone: 6945583395

Email: info@colouryouth.gr

ΣΥΔ (Transgender Association): it also offers legal support mainly to transgender refugees. A lawyer from ΣΥΔ can be present during the asylum interview.

Address : Syggrou 29, 1st floor, Athens, 11743

Phone: 6944820441

Email: transgender.support.association@gmail.com

General Support:

LGBTQI refugees in Greece: is a self-organized solidarity team created by Suma Rafi, a transgender refugee herself. It's a point of reference for the LGBT refugee community, it financially supports the most vulnerable refugees and regularly organises events where they can socialise in a secure and fun environment.

The initiative is supported by Notara 26, Femin@tre, LOA and NoBorders

<https://www.facebook.com/lgbtqi-refugees-in-greece/?fref=ts>

Email: lgbtqi.refugees.gr@gmail.com

LGBT friendly places:

AthensCheckpoint: offers free and anonymous HIV, HBV HCV testing.

Address Pittaki 4, Athens, 10554 (Near Monastiraki Metro station)

Phone: 210 3310400

ThessCheckpoint: Al. Svolou 15, Thessaloniki

Phone 2310 282284

Greek Helsinki Monitor: provides legal support to victims of hate crime.

Phone: 210 3472259

Email: office@greekhelsinki.gr

Greek Council for Refugees: provides legal support and is particularly sensible to LGBT issues.

Phone: +30 210 3800990

Email: gcr1@gcr.gr

25 Solomou Str., 10682, Athens

Zaatar: Runs one of the few LGBT friendly shelters.

<http://zaatarngo.org/index.php/about-us/>

Day Centre Babel: Provides psychological support and is particularly sensible to LGBT issues.

Address: Ioanni Drosopoulou 72, 112 57 Athens

Phone: 210 8616280

Email us (lgbtrefugeegr@gmail.com) for more specific inquiries.

